Parent, Please Note: Jason's Deli will provide participants with a box lunch for each scheduled game, regardless of cancellation due to weather, individual academic standing, injury, or other circumstance. On game days, participants should pick up their meal at the time and area designated by their coach. To limit the chance of mistakes or meals being left out, we ask that there be no cancellations or changes after sign-up. Should the number of games change during the season, Jason's Deli will work with your coach to provide the additional boxes on a separate occasion. Please initial that you agree: _____
